

THANK YOUR LOCAL PARK WORKERS DURING COVID-19!

During this challenging time, public parks and trails are more important than ever for our quality of life. Please join Park Pride in thanking the essential park maintenance and recreation workers who risk their own health every day to care for communities and the local greenspaces we all enjoy.

How It Works

1. Grab a piece of paper – a card, postcard, notebook paper, whatever you have on-hand!
2. Write a message of appreciation (or multiple!) to your local park workers or recreation professionals.
3. Mail your letter (with a stamp and everything!) to the appropriate address (see back). Take a photo first!
4. Share your letter on social media and encourage others to participate. Don't forget to tag @parkpride!

Letter Writing Tips

Include a simple greeting, like "Dear Park Worker," or "Dear Recreation Team."

Include a personal "thank you" or show gratitude for parks and recreation workers whose efforts and perseverance are feeding families and keeping the parks/trails beautiful during this difficult time.

Keep it positive! If you need to report a maintenance issue in your park, please do so using the appropriate channels and stick to expressions of gratitude in your letter.

Avoid including additional items in your envelope.

Get a stamp!

- Purchase and print stamps from home: www.stamps.com
- Have stamps delivered from the US Postal Service: bit.ly/stamps2020

Address and send your letter to the appropriate District Office for your park or trail (see back page).
